EXPECT 7000 FOR 'BIG GAME'

Tom Pulford, 35, plunges over goal line for game-tying touchdown against Long Beach. Signalling the score are Larry Darrett 87, and Joe Sutton 21.

New Stadium Opens
For Overflow Crowd

An overflow crowd of more than 7000 football fans is expected for the 1959 Homecoming game against Bakersfield tonight on Monarch Field. If the crowd comes up to speculations, it could easily set a record for home attendance at Valley. A report from Bakersfield estimates that between 4000 to 6000 spectators will travel to Valley for the game.

If the stadium fills to capacity as expected, late comers will have to be content with standing room only.

Largest crowd to witness a Valley football game occurred last year in Bakersfield as 16,500 fans turned out to see the Renegades humble the Lions 64-8.

In 1956 more than 11,800 spectators watched Valley take its second victory from the Renegades in Bakersfield.

The seating capacity of the new steel-decked stadium, which will be dedicated tonight, is 4000. Divided into five separate sections, the middle three will be reserved for Valley College rooters only.

Reserve Center Section

The center section will be reserved for Valley students and the surrounding two for general admission. The two outside sections will be used by Valley and Bakersfield general rooters. Each section holds an estimated 800 spectators.

To add to the seating capacity of the Bakersfield side of the field, plans are being made to move half of the stands on the north side of the field to the south side.

More than 1000 temporary and 1000 permanent stands are presently situated in the south side. Moving the stands from the north side would add an additional 1000 stands.

The remaining stands on the north side would be removed completely by game time.

Lights Illuminate Game

Surrounding the football field are six steel towers each 100 feet high. Nearly 216,000 watts of light can be beamed on the field. Each tower holds 24 lights which give out approximately 1500 watts each. This makes Monarch Field one of the best lighted stadiums in the country.

A 10-lane quarter-mile track encircles the gridiron.

Originally the completion date of the new stadium was set for Sept. 14, 1959, for the Cerritos scrimmage, but the steel strike postponed it until the opening game with City College of San Francisco.

Again the deadline was not met and the completion date was set forward. Valley paid $1500 for the construction of temporary stands on the south side of the field.

Then the original contract called for the seats to be constructed out of Alaskan cedar but a dock strike hit Vancouver, B.C., and the wood was indefinitely delayed.

The deadline was lengthened to Oct. 17 as the builders were granted permission to construct the stands out of select structural Oregon pine.

Delays Slowed Construction

However, when architects came to approve the situation, they would not approve the Oregon pine.

The decision was reversed, however, and construction resumed with about one-half of the stands already completed.

Finally, after a delay of three months the 7000 seat Monarch Field will be dedicated tonight.

The stadium, costing an estimated $175,000, is part of the $3.5 million phase one construction.

Monarchs To Test
Bowl—Bound 'Gades

By CRAIG ALTSCHUL, Star Sports Editor

Posing the final blockade to the Junior Rose Bowl for Bakersfield's unbeaten, untied Renegades, Valley College will pull out all the stops, empty its bag of tricks and attempt to stop the powerful, if not sensational, 'Gade attack.

Finally, after two long years of struggling with red tape, steel and labor strikes, the dream of a completed Monarch Field is about to be realized tonight at 8 p.m.

No bigger, nor more important game, could be played to open the new Lion facilities than the titanic between the number two team in the nation, Bakersfield, and its hopeful southern challenger, Valley.

A win for the 'Gades would, in all probability, cinch a bid to the granddaddy of the junior college bowl games, the Rose Bowl.

Keep Up Record

Coach Ray Newman will bring to Valley, along with a small army of Bakersfield partisans, the only undefeated JC team in Southern California and one of the few left in the nation.

On paper, nearly everything points to a Renegade win, but the Monarch Homecoming game will not be played on paper.

This is the 10th game of what has been a fine JC series that has seen several great games. The score was 19-17 with Valley on top in 1952; 'Gades 7-0 in 1954; 7-6 Monarchs in (Continued on Page 3)

Heart Attack
Halts Coach

Bus Sutherland, backfield coach of the Los Angeles Valley College Monarchs since 1953, has suffered a mild heart attack and will be out of the football coaching picture for the remainder of the season. He suffered another heart spasm Wednesday night.

Sutherland, 42, a full-time physical education instructor at Valley College, is currently undergoing tests at Sherwood Hospital in Van Nuys. Preliminary electrocardiographs apparently indicate some obstruction.

The extent of the ailment is not currently known, but he is expected to remain in the hospital for at least one week.

He was bothered by chest pains Monday at the college. Following an increase in the pains Monday night at home, he entered the hospital.

The ailment came as Valley was preparing for possibly its most important game in four years, against undefeated Bakersfield Friday night.

Along with Al Hunt, head Valley football coach, Sutherland has been associated with the Los Angeles Ram scouting staff for several seasons. He is a graduate of UCLA, where he earned three letters in football under Bill Spaulding, plus letters in soccer, rugby and boxing.

He received his master's degree from SC.

"His illness is quite a shock to those of us who knew him well," said Hunt. "We all wish him a speedy recovery."

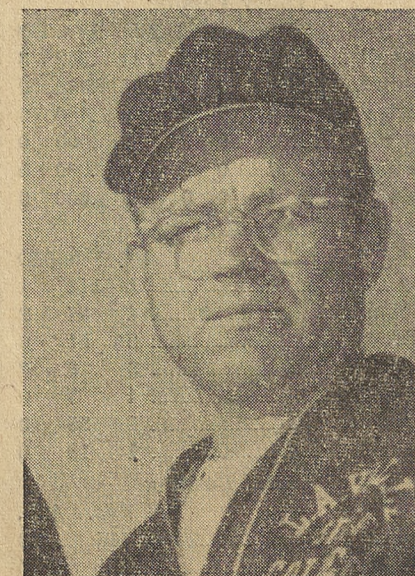

Renegades Rate
High Nationally

The All-American Gridiron Index lists Bakersfield College as its number two selection in naming the seven top JC football squads.

Del Mar College with a 6-0-0 record retains the top rating. Others are Chaffey (5-0-0), Pearl River (8-0-1), Phoenix (6-0-0), Coalinga (7-0-0) and Otero 7-0-0.

Valley faces Bakersfield today in the 10th year of a rivalry which has seen the Renegades win in six out of nine meetings.

Last week saw Bakersfield retain its Metro Conference lead with a 55-6 victory over third place Santa Monica. Two weeks ago Bakersfield beat San Diego by a 26-6 tally.

Lions Undisputed Second

Clearing the first of three hurdles standing between Valley and the Metropolitan Conference championship, the Monarchs moved into undisputed second place with a tight but convincing 13-6 win over Long Beach.

About 1300 fans saw the Monarchs score a touchdown in each of the final two periods of play after trailing 6-0 at half time.

Valley came through with its finest defensive game of the year, limiting the Vikings to only 167 yards rushing and passing. In the second half, the Monarchs were particularly brilliant holding Long Beach to 28 yards rushing, 13 yards passing and two first downs as 66 of 74 plays run in the half started in Vike territory.

Pete Holt won top running honors of the night, gaining 84 yards in 13 carries for a 6.5 average. Holt's 48 yards enabled him to move into second place on the all time Valley rushing list, behind Clark Holden who ramblled 782 yards in 1956.

The Monarchs took the opening kickoff and marched to a first down on the Vikes' five as Holt and Howie Smith reeled off good gains. However, three running plays lost five yards, and Phil Romoli passed incomplete on fourth down to end the drive.

The second time Valley got its hands on the ball, the Monarchs traveled from their own 18 to the Long Beach 35 before the Viking defense stiffened.

Breaks Ice

Early in the second quarter, Long Beach took over on its own 38 yard line and pushed to the Lion 17 where Jim Zar pounced on a Vike fumble, killing the menace.

Long Beach finally broke the scoring ice with only 21 seconds remaining in the half when Vike quarterback Pete Yoder tossed a five yard pass to Jim Jerauld in the end zone. Allan Davison smeared Mickey Castricone on an attempted running extra point.

The touchdown was set up by a recovered fumble and a 28-yard pass from Yoder to end Ed Merino.

Vikes Checked

Following the second half kickoff, Valley checked the Vikes, and Yoder got off a poor punt of only 14 yards that rolled dead on the Long Beach 27-yard line.

Valley wasn't able to pick up a first down and gave up the ball on the 18 but four plays later Dick Cholokian recovered a fumble, and Valley was on the road to victory.

Romoli threw a 10-yard completion to Zar and Tom Pulford drove the remaining 18 yards in five carries into the end zone. Pulford scored on a one-yard plunge, and Romoli kicked the extra point, putting Valley in front 7-6.

Late in the fourth quarter, Yoder got off another bad punt that died on the Vikes' 32.

Pulford Rams Over

Two minutes into the final period and nine plays later, Pulford took a pitchout from Romoli on the one and bulldied his way over the goal line.

The PAT attempt was no good as the officials ruled Zar caught a Romoli pass out of the end zone.

The Lions threaten to score twice in the quarter. A 52-yard march died when the center of the Vike line held Pulford on the six-inch line.

Valley couldn't capitalize on a third bad Yoder punt as Joe Sutton fumbled on the Long Beach 20.

A last ditch Viking aerial fizzled as Pulford intercepted a pass, and the Lions ran out the clock to preserve their fourth conference win in five starts.

Rivalry Characterized By Upset Victories

Tonight marks the 10th year of a rivalry which has seen Bakersfield's Renegades slip out of their northern wasteland to down the Monarchs in six out of nine cross-state battles.

The encounters have been characterized by spectacular last-minute drives for upset victories and long tortuous ordeals which have seen 53 and 66-point differences in the final tallies.

Heart-Breaking Upset

Doubtless the most harrowing game of the series was seen in 1955 when Valley's under-rated eleven showed the undefeated Renegades, a heart-breaking 7-6 upset.

The game was considered the biggest upset in Metropolitan Conference play that year.

A capacity crowd at Van Nuys High School watched quarterback Tom Kotal pass to end Jerry Myers for a much needed 30 yard gain to start a spectacular scoring drive.

Uyeda Scores

Kotal then handed off to halfback Tom Uyeda for the final score after the Monarchs had trailed for three quarters. Kotal, who has since taken his place on the list of Valley's grid-iron miracle-men, faked the conversion kick and passed to Myers for the winning score.

In 1956, however, the Northerners swept down from their desert sanction and left Valley in the wake of a 53-0 massacre. This and a colossal 64-8 victory last year have doubtlessly provided highpoints in the Renegade history book.

Successful Year

Valley's third year of Metropolitan Conference competition in 1954 saw one of its most successful teams down one of Bakersfield's equally strong teams.

Monarch backfield men like Bill New, Jim Quinn, Fred Brand and Bob Ritchie handed a 19-17 defeat to such Renegades as Bill "Hurricane" Fanning, who had gained 734 yards the previous year. Before more than 10,000 fans at Griffith Stadium in Bakersfield, Valley came from a 10-6 halftime deficit to defeat the Bakersfield crew which featured four all-conference returning lettermen.

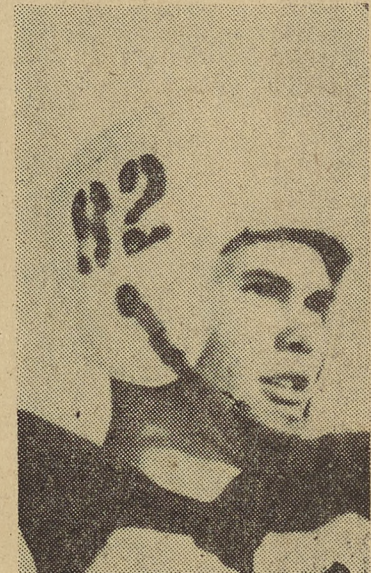

Drowned Rooters

An additional Valley victory occurred in 1956 as Monarch gridders held off the men from the north for a 13-7 upset. Bakersfield was knocked out of the top spot in Metro play before a record crowd of 11,800.

In 1957, however, a drenched and downhearted band of Monarch rooters watched Bakersfield come from behind in the last seconds of play to subdue Valley in the rain.

Additional unpleasant memories for Valley College were provided by Bakersfield in 1950 and 1953.

Valley's first year with a football team was 1950 and it had lost all of its previous tilts before being set further back by a 39-7 defeat at the hands of Bakersfield.

Marilyn Gonder Reigns

Queen Still Can't Believe It

BY TONY CIFARELLI
Star Staff Writer

"After all that work and effort, I did it."

These were Marilyn Gonder's first thoughts upon being named Valley College Homecoming Queen for 1959.

"If you want something bad enough you work until you achieve that goal," said Miss Gonder.

The royal crown of honor was placed upon Miss Gonder's head by President William J. McNelis at the Homecoming Dance Friday night in the Women's Gym.

Past Homecoming Queen Marge Dillon presented her with a bouquet of yellow "mums." President McNelis gave her a gold cup bearing the inscription "Valley College Homecoming Queen, Fall of 1959, Marilyn Gonder." She will be presented to the student body today at 11 a.m. in Monarch Bowl.

Name Princesses

Reigning beside the 5 foot 6 inch 130 pound Queen during Homecoming Week will be her four princesses—Arlene Ballonoff, MPPA and Behavioral Sciences; Donna Hart, Les Savants-Tau Alpha Epsilon; Sharon Leahy, Newman Club; and Karen McNamara, Freshman Class.

Each of the princesses and the Queen were given a bouquet of white orchids. The princesses also received gold cups.

Sponsored by the Valley College Sport Car Club, Miss Gonder said she "still can't believe it happened yet. It was an unbelievable shock."

Climaxing a week-long reign as Homecoming Queen, Miss Gonder will be presented to the crowd at the Homecoming game against Bakersfield tonight at 8 on Monarch Field.

The Queen will travel around the field on a specially constructed float, closely followed by her court of four princesses in open sport cars at half time.

Sweater Presented

The blond-haired, blue-eyed Queen, who measures 37-24-37, was presented a sweater and skirt from Ryder's Dress Shop in Van Nuys. Her picture and the picture of the four princesses are currently being displayed in Ryder's window.

Born in Van Nuys, Miss Gonder has spent all of her 19 years in the San Fernando Valley. She was graduated from Van Nuys High School in the winter of 1959.

In her last year at Van Nuys, she was honored as princess at the senior prom.

Planning for a Home Economics career, Miss Gonder plans to continue her education at UCLA after leaving Valley. She started out to become a veterinarian but changed her major to Home Economics while in high school.

Upon graduation from UCLA, she expects to work as a demonstrator for the Gas or Water and Power Co. This involves showing the application of different appliances and new techniques.

Attended UN

At Van Nuys High School, Miss Gonder was a letter girl three years in the Girls Athletic Association and president for one semester.

Following a 21 day tour on which she attended a session of the United Nations in New York, she returned to give a series of lectures on her trip. This was part of the UN Pilgrimage for Youth.

She lectured at various lodges and church organizations in the Valley, including the Odd Fellows and Rebekas.

Her main hobbies and interests include water skiing, swimming and drill team.

At Valley, Miss Gonder is a member of the Monarchettes, women's drill team. The Monarchettes march and parade at all Valley College football games during half time.

Previous honors won in high school include captain of the high school drill team; president of the Ladies, school honor organization, and an Ephebian of her graduation class.

Miss Gonder summed up the weeks of work and campaigning by saying, "Now I can catch up on all the studying I haven't done in the last three weeks."

QUEEN FOR A YEAR—Pretty Marilyn Gonder is crowned Homecoming Queen at the annual Valley Homecoming dance and coronation by President William J. McNelis. The lovely blue-eyed Queen has blonde hair and stands 5 feet 6 inches tall.

1955; Valley 13-7 in 1956 and lopsided scores of 53-0, 39-7, 33-12 and worst of all, 64-8 last year.

During the past seven years, Bakersfield has compiled a conference mark of 44 wins and just 10 losses. However, Valley can account for three of those losses.

Lions Outweighed

The Renegade threat on paper is almost insurmountable with the 'Gades outweighing Valley on the interior line by 94 pounds, approximately an 18-pound average per man.

No one has come closer than 14 points to beating the 'Gades, with San Diego losing by a 26-12 score and Harbor falling 27-12. The 'Gades have averaged 33.6 points per game. However, on the other end of the lopsided wire, Bakersfield walloped East Los Angeles by a 57-6 score and licked supposed title contender Santa Monica 55-8. Both games were played in Bakersfield. Last week in Bakersfield, before a sellout throng of 16,000 witnesses, the 'Gades ran up four touchdowns in the first seven minutes of play against Santa Monica.

Greatest Running Combination

With Pistol Pete Holt, Joe Sutton and Tom Pulford representing the greatest running combination in Valley College history, anything can happen providing these three can crack the rugged Renegade defense.

In the game that will be witnessed by a 16-man Junior Rose committee, Bakersfield will bring 162-pound signal-caller Bob Ezell, 170-pound halfback Calvin Campbell, and 190-pound fullback Cecil Mannings, who will be backed up by 193-pound fullback Don Hampton.

Three members of the current Monarch football squad, Holt, Sutton and Pulford all are members of Valley's all-time ground-gaining list. Holt needs 77 yards to top SC star Clark Holden for first place.

Holt carried the ball 69 times last year to gain 401 yards. This year he has carried 61 times for 307 yards.

Holt Keeps Yard Average

Totals on Holt for the combined seasons are 708 yards in 130 carries. This gives him a 5.4-yard average.

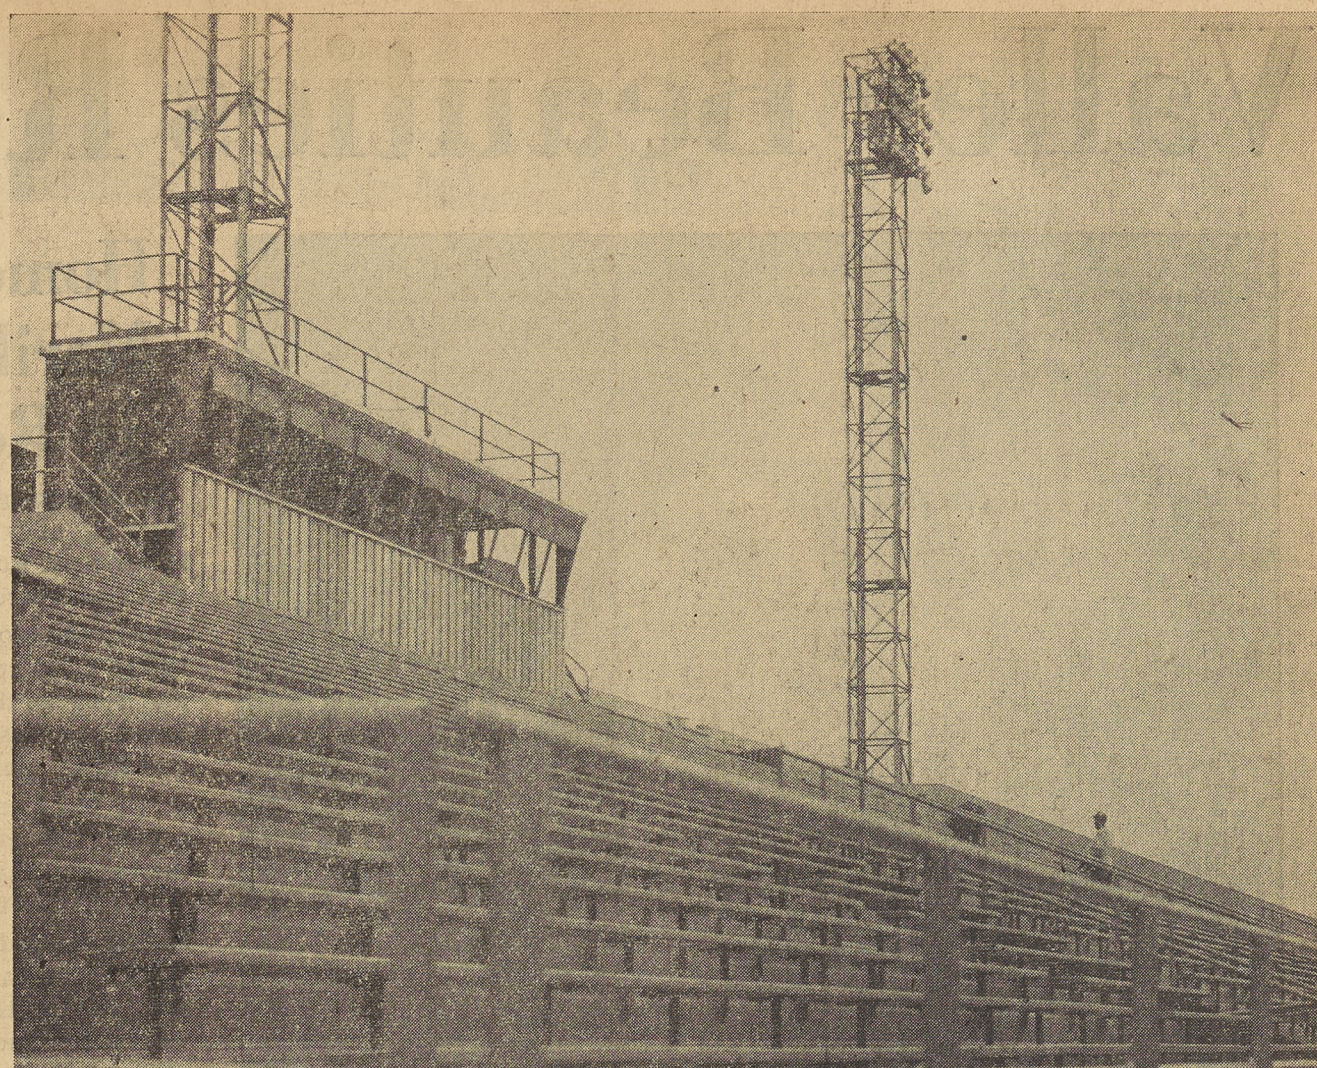

Holden gained 784 yards. The startling fact is that Holden did this in only one season.

Holden carried the ball 94 times to amass an 8.3-yard average.

Pulford ranks fifth on the top ground gainer list. He has gained 439 yards this season in 79 carries for a 5.1 average.

Sutton in two years has carried the ball 88 times while gaining 325 yards. This gives him the eighth position with a 5.4-yard average.

The top eight all-time rushing list, in order, consists of Holden, Holt, Tom Uyeda, Dick Sanita, Pulford, John Miscione, Dick Windham and Sutton.

DEDICATION TONIGHT—Valley's new Monarch Field will be officially dedicated in tonight's Homecoming game. Construction on the field began two years ago, but had been set back due to various strikes and red tape. More than 7000 fans are expected.

Ceremony Opens New Facilities

Dedication ceremonies for Valley's newly completed bleacher facilities on Monarch Field will commence at 7:40 tonight, prior to the Valley Bakersfield Homecoming game.

The entire stadium will be darkened for a spotlight flag raising featuring the combined Monarch and Renegade Bands playing the Star Spangled Banner, according to Kermit Dale, assistant dean of student activities.

After a brief introductory speech by President William J. McNelis, Walter T. Coultas, past president of Valley College and now assistant superintendent in charge of higher education for Los Angeles, will officially dedicate the new facilities.

Queen Presents Scroll

Valley's Homecoming Queen Marilyn Gonder, representing the student body, will then present Coultas with a lettered scroll in recognition for his continuing interest in Valley's athletic program.

Also taking part in the festivities will be Pete Holt, Tom Maguire and Dick Cholakian, football co-captains.

Tonight's ceremony will climax nearly two years of construction. The stands were scheduled to be completed Oct. 17 for the Valley-El Camino game but a dock strike halted the supply of Alaskan cedar, which was to be used in the original construction.

New Stands Seat 4000

The completed stands with a seating capacity of 4000 are part of Valley's Phase I construction program. The combined new and old stands will seat 7000 fans.

The completed Monarch Field, with such features as six 100 foot light tower, a 10-lane quarter mile track and the new steel decked stands, was constructed at a cost of $175,000.

Valley Beauties Reign in Pictorial Review

Homecoming Queen Marilyn Gonder To Reign at Game

Homecoming Queen of 1959 Marilyn Gonder will reign at Valley's Homecoming game tonight against Bakersfield. Roman Holiday was the theme for the dance and coronation held last week.

Reigning alongside of Miss Gonder at the game will be her four princesses: Arline Ballonoff, MPPA and Behavioral Sciences; Donna Hart, Les Savants-Tau Alpha Epsilon; Sharon Leahy, Newman Club; and Karen McNamara, Freshman Class.

Any old alum will remember all the old homecoming themes that have highlighted the fall semester and the homecoming game and dance.

Relive the first homecoming game when Rae Racker was led through the streets of Van Nuys in jubilation in the first parade before the game. This was 1950 and the KGIL broadcasting station interviewed the queen.

Carol Martinson, under the Lettermen's banner, was crowned queen in 1951, as the first alumni returned to talk over old times at the Bull Pen restaurant in an after-game banquet.

The first floats were introduced in 1952 and the French Club came away with both the best float and the queen. Carolyn Kent was crowned on the float entitled "The Roving Kind."

An air of middle eastern mystery prevailed as the theme "Arabian Knights" was carried on through the 1953 homecoming. Lani Haverlin was chosen as queen.

The banning of floats on the streets of Van Nuys in 1954 did not keep Valley from producing Art Club and Engineering Club entries that were entered in the Rose Bowl parade. Brunette Charlene Lance carried the Ski Lions colors to the queen's throne.

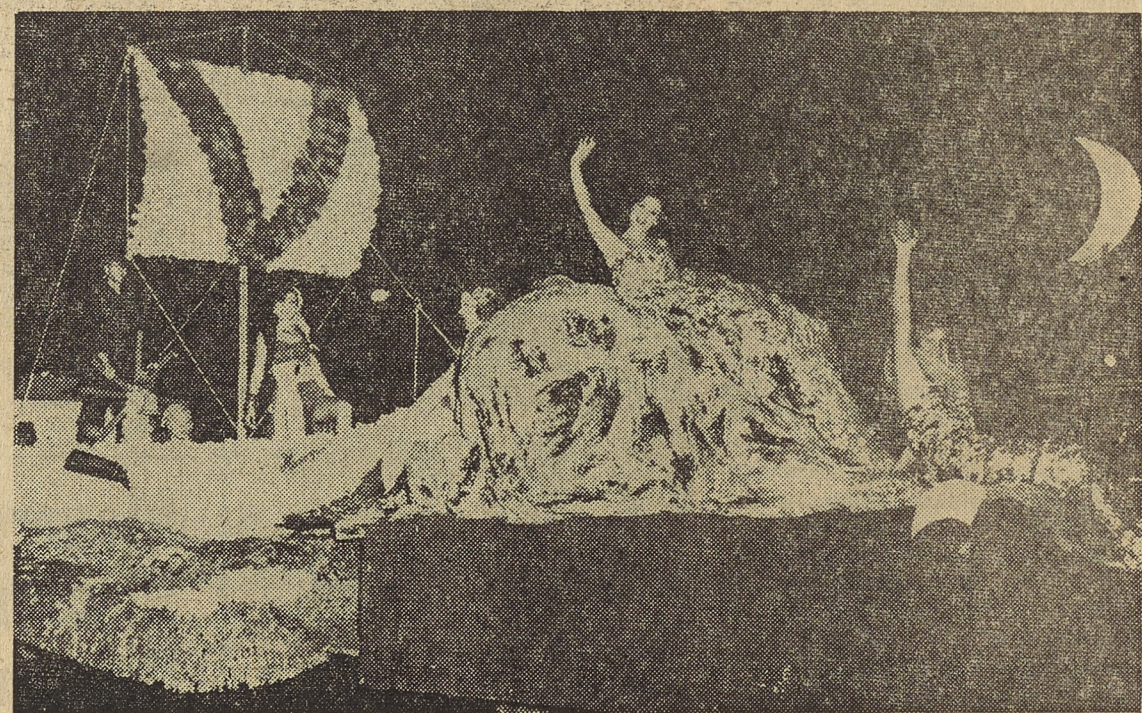

A "Beauty and the Beast" theme in three-dimension was carried to its fullest as Jackie (a real lion) cavorted up and down the sidelines. Director Coultas hereafter limited the Lions to less real variety after a controversy over the "King of Beasts" appearance.

Ann Marie McDonald played the "Beauty" part of the combination as she was named queen and presented with a bunch of red roses at the game.

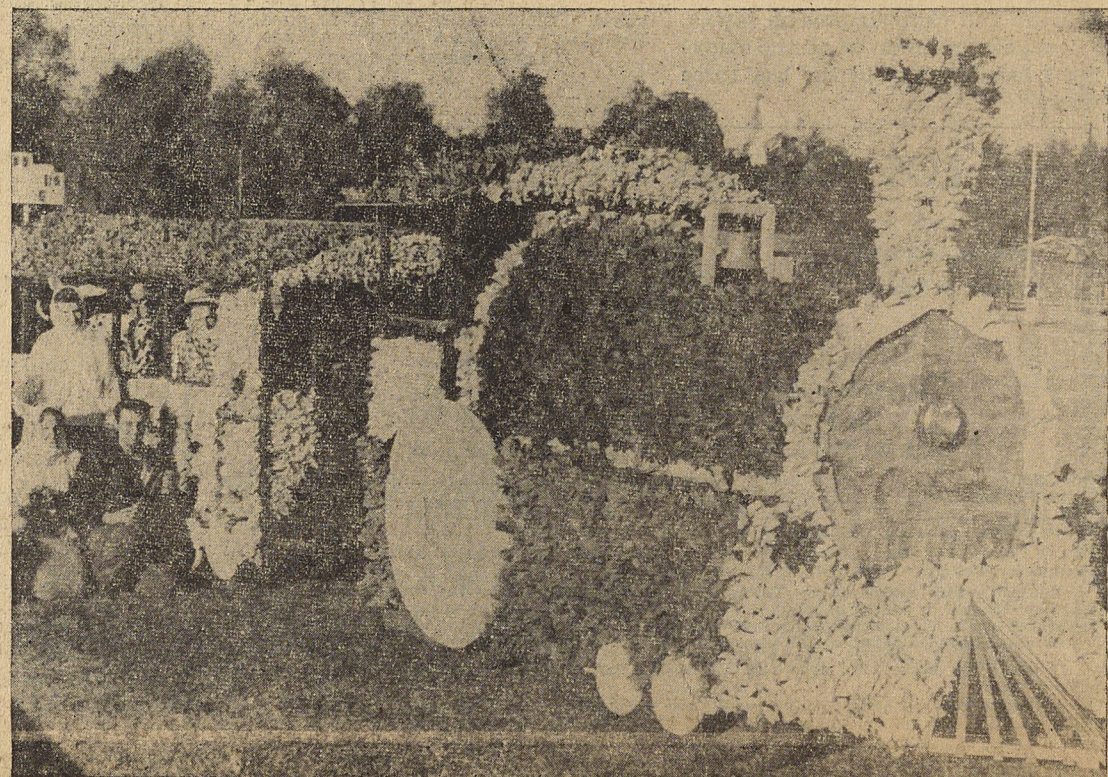

The next year Marsha Tatlow won the queen contest under the sponsorship of the Police Club. "Fame and Fortune" was the theme of the homecoming festivities.

An oriental theme prevailed in the 1957 dance but we could have used the "Luck of the Irish" as Queen Jody Jennings met a thunderburst of rain as Valley lost to Bakersfield in a wet homecoming game. The homecoming ceremony was restaged for the El Camino game the next week for the first restaging in history.

Turning time with a nostalgic note to the "Roaring Twenties," Marge Dillon reigned over the ninth annual Homecoming football game last year.
